

ABSTRACT

YAKI PURWADI 0804658. THE EFFECT OF AUDIO VISUAL MEDIA AGAINST MASTERY OF HEADING SKILLS IN LEARNING FOOTBALL SMP MEKAR ARUM BANDUNG. LEADER 1 Drs, SUCIPTO, M.Kes AIFO AND LEADER 2 SUFYAR MUDJIANTO, M.Pd

The purpose of this study is to determine how much effect the audio-visual media against mastery of heading skills in learning football students of SMP class VII Mekar Arum Bandung. The method used is an experimental method, sample research is Student of SMP Mekar Arum Bandung who are members of extracurricular which amount 22 people chosen by members of the sample or the consideration of researchers, research design is pre-test and post-test design, research instrument used in reference to Nurhasan (1999: 210). Hypothesis testing tests equality of two studies using an average of one party or the t test. In his research the results of learning football in heading skills through the media Audio Visual will be compared to learning without audio visual media or learning methods are often carried out Students in SMP Mekar Arum Bandung in other words learning control class is not using media Audio Visual, the result comparison the measure of success will be the effect of the Audio Visual media against towards enhancement the heading skills of students in learning heading skills the football. The results of the data processing is concluded that the learning process through the medium of football Audio Visual provide a more significant effect on heading in football skills, in comparison with the control class learning. As a suggestion in the process of learning football in heading skills should use the media Audio Visual.

Keywords: Audio Visual Media, football, soccer ball skills