

Abstract

The development of comic, especially in Indonesia today, is entering the era of resurrection. After a long time we are consuming comics from the outside as a media to entertain, it makes the characteristic of Indonesian comic buried and close to disappear. Any stories of Wayang have a big influence to the characteristic of Indonesian comic, because its character has aim to emulate comic from outside the country and to balance any negative influence that may appear from that.

It is one of many other things that push the writer to join in picking up the Wayang Story into the form of comic, because comic has method that acceptable in society especially in children and teenagers circle. Statement of problem of this thesis is how the developing process of the story of wayang into the comic, include element's description, and visualization of each character in comic.

Using the method of processing idea, analyzing what needed, stimulating, preparing tools and data, will began the process of making the comic. Writer transform the story of "PandawaTujuh", novel by PitoyoAmrih, as the basic of the story. In the process of making, writer pass any steps which are; making synopsis, storyline, storyboard, detailing character in verbal way, designing character, visualizing comic and at last, covering the comic.

Story of Wayang that carried from the novel is focusing on the story that still far behind from the War of Baratayudha, its narrative is telling about character *PandhuDewanata*which is the father of Pandawa Lima (his five son). The illustration is using style of manga, which aim the reader in teenagers circle. Description the elements of comic are in form of panel and various shift, text in bubble, sound effect, moving line to make a movement view. Description of each character in the comic that titled "GenderangBaratayudha", begin from its color, accesory and then its identity. Along this comic, hopefully will become an alternative media in transforming the Wayang Story to the children and teenagers today, and having an everlasting value of Indonesian culture.
