APPENDIX A

Questionnaire for assessing the quality of translation adapted from Peter Kahl (1990).

EVALUATION FORM

Dear Evaluator,

Thank you for agreeing to assess a translation of Anthony Capella’s novel entitled “The Various Flavors of Coffee”. The aim has been to develop a set of standards by which we can measure the quality of individual translations.

In the following, you will be therefore be asked to rate each translation by seven different criteria. Each criterion is presented on a scale of 1-5 and is illustrated in a sentence. You should circle the number of the statement that you think comes closest to your opinion on the translation.

After you have finished, please return the evaluation form and the text to the co-ordinator. Thank you once again for your assistance.

A. Grammaticality

Please rate the syntax and grammaticality of the translation. The text is:

1 - consistently grammatical
2 - largely grammatical
3 - mostly grammatical
4 - often ungrammatical
5 - largely ungrammatical

B. Accuracy

Please rate, as far as is possible for you, the accuracy of the translation. The text is:

1 - an entirely accurate version of the original
2 - largely an accurate version of the original
