Acknowledgement

Praise the Lord that this dissertation entitled “Thesis Writing Supervision: A contribution of feedback to the development of student’s thesis writing” has been able to be accomplished.

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my main supervisor (promotor), Prof. A. Chaedar Alwasilah, M.A., Ph.D. (in memory) for the continuous support of my Ph.D. study, for his patience, motivation, and enthusiasm. His guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this dissertation.

My sincere gratitude also goes to my co-supervisor (co-promotor), Prof. E. Aminudin Aziz, MA., Ph.D. for the thorough constructive guide of my Ph.D. research, for his immense knowledge and deep thought about my dissertation. His advice encouraged me to focus on the research and writing of this dissertation.

I would also like to express my sincere thanks to my co-supervisor (member of supervisors), Iwa Lukmana, M.A., Ph.D. for his detailed guide and comments on my dissertation, for his patience and witty support. His guide made me aware of the detailed organisation of my dissertation.

Besides the advisors mentioned above, I would like to thank to Prof. Emi Emilia, M.Ed., Ph.D. as the Head of the study program for her continuous reminders to accomplish this dissertation and for making me aware of writing conventions.

I would extend my special gratitude to all the students and supervisors as the participants of this research for their invaluable information, support and time especially during the prolonged engagement in the interview and observation.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my family: Iie, Lukas and David for their support and understanding for the three busy years with my doctorate course; my mother in law, my pastor and GBBZ group of prayers for the continuous support and prayers for my study.
