

Welcome message from Rector of Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia

To realize the vision of Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia (henceforth, UPI) to be a Leading and Outstanding University requires hard work from all of its academic members, as reflected in various programs supporting the development of a sustainable and solid academic culture. One of the activities contributing greatly to the realization of the vision is international publication of both Scopus- and Thomson Reuters-indexed journal and proceedings.

The International Conference on Sociology Education (ICSE), initiated by the Study Program of Sociology Education, Faculty of Social Sciences Education, UPI, is an inseparable part of the efforts of developing a solid academic culture that has to be supported by other sustainable and positive activities that can contribute to the achievements of UPI's vision and missions. Furthermore, the articles to be presented in this seminar will be published internationally.

Therefore, on behalf of Indonesia University of Education (UPI), I applaud the committee for successfully organizing this conference that takes the theme of "Education for Sustainability Development and Empowering Community," held in the campus of UPI on October 12, 2015. I express my great appreciation to the whole members of the committee who have worked hard with strong commitment and dedication to help prepare the conference.

I would also like to warmly welcome all of the conference participants to our campus and wish you all a very successful conference. I hope you can help make this conference a strategic medium for academic members to exchange ideas and invaluable experiences in order to develop a creative dialogue among the academic communities of sociology education, in particular, and other relevant professions.

Rector,

Prof. H. Furqon, M.A., Ph.D

Welcome message from the Dean of Faculty of Social Sciences Education
Universitas Pendidikan Indoensia

I am highly excited with the 1st UPI International Conference on Sociology Education (UPI ICSE 2015) With theme Education for Sustainability Development and Empowering Community because it implies the academic honesty and excitement to take into account the development process to more civilized and beneficial for all human beings and humanity. Through a series of research with various perspectives. The researchers not only “market” their ideas but also emphasizes the importance of position the justice as a main principle for sustained development.

Justine in the development process and the use of benefits is the nearest way to wealth and prosperity.

Right now. I am really glad because I can also present the seminar pro-siding to all the readers. I hope that it is really advantageous and excels the next academic efforts. An effort that is not always easy, but God, The Most Gracious, will provide special rewards for it

Welcome message from the Head of the Study Program of Sociology Education
Faculty of Social Sciences Education, Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia

I applaud the conference committee for the organization of the first International Conference on Sociology Education in UPI, to be held on October 12, 2015, with speakers who are experts in their respective fields. I am sure this conference will enlighten us all, especially those who desire information and knowledge on various experiences pertaining to the theme taken by the conference, namely “Education for Sustainability Development and Empowering Community.”

We are particularly proud of the articles to be presented in the conference that will be published internationally by Atlantis Press in Advances in Social Science, Education and Humanities Research (ASSEHR), ISSN 2352-5398, Indexed by: CPCI-SSH Thomson Reuters and Google Scholar. The international publication is an opportunity as well as a positive challenge that should be answered by the whole members of academic community by being committed to The sharpening of their abilities to disseminate recent research results.

I personally express my gratitude to the whole committee members who have dedicated and committed their time to work hard hand in hand in organizing the conference. It is only natural that there will be imperfections for us to reflect on and to be made the drive for the betterment in the future.

I would also like to express my gratitude and deep appreciation to the whole participants who have joined this invaluable academic event. It is truly an honor for me to welcome all participants to our conference.

Let me close this by wishing you a wonderful conference.

Welcome Message from the Head of the Committee of International Conference on Sociology Education

Praise be to God the Almighty, the Most Merciful and the Most Bountiful. It is only through His blessings that the Study Program of Sociology Education, Indonesia University of Education, is able to successfully organize its very first international conference on October 12, 2015.

The 1st UPI International Conference on Sociology Education (UPI ICSE 2015) is expected to be held biannually, and this year we take the theme of “Education for Sustainability Development and Empowering Community.”

UPI ICSE 2015 ultimately aims to provide a medium for educators, researchers, scholars, managers, graduate students and sociologists from diverse cultural backgrounds to present and discuss their recent research, knowledge, and innovation in the field of sociology. This conference also serves as an opportunity for the delegates to exchange new ideas and experiences, develop the scholarship or collaborate in research, and find global partners for future cooperation.

The articles submitted for the conference will be revised and edited based on the results of presentation and discussion to be then published by Atlantis Press in Advances in Social Science, Education and Humanities Research (ASSEHR), ISSN 2352-5398, Indexed by: CPCI-SSH Thomson Reuters and Google Scholar.

It is expected that through UPI ICSE 2015, participants will gain the opportunities to improve their knowledge and expand their network as well as inspiring innovative ideas for the advancement of knowledge and social welfare.

Finally, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the participants and contributors of the 1st UPI ICSE 2015.

Bandung, 12 October 2015

Head of the Committee of
UPIICSE 2015

Dr. Siti Nurbayani K, M.Si
