

ABSTRACTION

THE SCHOOL BOARD ENRICHMENT IN IMPROVING THE EDUCATION QUALITY

The Analysis Study to Implementation of The School Based Management Concept In The Primary Schools All Majalengka Regency

By : Ande Jatnika

The existence of the school board is considered as the best solution in breaking the apprehensive education problem this time. The education with various its aspects problem is demanded to be exist and dynamic to realize the prosperity of a country. In a practical level, The school board is considered as the legislative assembly that takes a part in controlling/supervising a school activity, so the policies or the decisions that taken by the principal is an aspiring decision from the parents and the community through on the school board.

This research is to describe, discover, and accumulate on what is the role of the school board to the education quality improvement in the board school. The focus of the problem is how to enrich the school board in the primary school Majalengka regency.

In particularly, the appeared problems are how is the ability condition of the stakeholder in implementating the school board looked at it from the aspects of strength, weakness, opportunity, and threath? What is the srategy to enrich the school board in primary school? What is the role of the school board in improving the education quality?

The research method is descriptive method, study cases, and porposive qualitative approachment. The location of the research is in the primary school Majalengka regency. The data is obtained from the head of the department, the chairman of the school board, principals, teachers, and parents.

The condition analysis owned by the stakeholders in implementating the school based management are STRENGTH (1) UU No : 22-1999 and UU No : 25 – 2000; (2) The socialization of the school based management (3) The community awareness increases and the community controlling is efektif (4) The supporting from ADB (Asian Development Bank) through on BEP (Basic Education Project).

WEAKNESS (1) the managerial ability of the school board (member/ chairman) has not been evenly distributed. (2) The Supporting power and the participation of the community to the education have not been good.

OPPORTUNITY (1) The supporting from the local and seat government (2) The firm supports the school based management. THREATH (1) The community tends to choose the qualified education (2) The otonomy of the education management (3) The primary school is the measurement standard to the education level further.

The strategy to enrich the school board is the improvement of the quality teching activity service and the guide of a ware community of quality; Socialization of the school based management concept to the school board, to improve the ability of the human resource.

The role of the school board in improving education quality is observed from the competence, cooperation, budget management and implication the school based management to the education quality.